

Occupational Therapy

Your Occupational Therapist can help you maintain independence and embrace living well.

Consultations include:

- Equipment to improve independence in your daily activities;
- Wheelchair and seating prescription;
- Fatigue and pain management strategies;
- Assessment of the home environment to promote safety;
- Home modifications;
- Falls prevention;
- Pressure injury reduction and management.

For more information:
1300 782 896 | integratedliving.org.au

